

CRS/NCAN College Leaders Program on HIV & AIDS by Catholic Relief Services

This video is a description of a student's experience in being active in the leadership program run by Catholic Relief Service. Then he also gives his perspective on why people should respond to the HIV & AIDS pandemic. The student is from Villanova University and was part of the CRS/NCAN College Leaders Program. (This is a paraphrase of CatholicRelief's Youtube.com description of this video that was posted for Catholic Relief Service.)
